Madam Speaker, please join Rep. CLEAVER and myself in congratulating Travois, Inc. for being awarded as a Certified B Corporation Best For The World 2019 honoree. Travois' outstanding achievement and dedication to sustainability and social justice are truly admirable, and we are privileged to have such an organization in our Kansas City region.

IN RECOGNITION OF TRAVOIS, INC.

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 1, 2019

Mr. CLEAVER. Madam Speaker, I rise today, along with my esteemed colleague, Rep. SHARICE DAVIDS, of Kansas City, Kansas to recognize Travois, Inc., a Certified B Corporation headquartered in Kansas City, that has been named a "Best For The World" honoree by B Lab. Travois focuses exclusively on promoting housing and economic development for American Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian communities. We are proud to have this socially and environmentally conscious company in the Kansas City metro region.

Since its establishment in 1995, Travois has generated $1.4 billion in housing and economic development in American Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian communities, helping clients build or rehabilitate more than 5,400 affordable homes. The company has brought more than $800 million in private investor equity to more than 200 developments in Indian Country. Travois raises capital for this purpose through the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit program, the New Markets Tax Credit program, and through impact investors.

Travois' work promotes public benefits, is designed to solve social and environmental issues, creates economic opportunity for individuals and communities, and focuses on underserved populations. The company also finances critical economic development projects, including infrastructure, healthcare, community centers, education facilities, and senior living centers in 22 states. Additionally, it provides employee benefits like on-site daycare and uses an extensive renewable energy system of rooftop solar panels to power its headquarters building.

Travois has been honored in two categories of Best For the World: Overall and Customers. It earned recognition as Best for the World: Overall due to its rank in the top 10 percent of all B Corporations worldwide across all six impact areas—environment, workforce, local communities, supplies, customers, and corporate governance. It is one of only 119 U.S. companies that were recognized with this honorary designation and is the only Missouri-based company in this category.

The Best For the World recognition is administered by the global nonprofit B Lab, which certifies and supports Certified B Corporations that are dedicated to using business as a force for good. The 3,000 B Corporations are spread across 64 countries and 150 industries, unified by the common goal of redefining success in business. These corporations, including Travois, meet the highest standards of verified social and environmental performance and are assessed by the overall positive impact of their business model.

Madam Speaker, please join Rep. DAVIDS and myself in congratulating Travois, Inc. for being awarded as a Certified B Corporation Best For The World 2019 honoree. Travois' outstanding achievement and dedication to sustainability and social justice are truly admirable, and we are privileged to have such an organization in our Kansas City region.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF CONGRESSMAN JOHN CONYERS

HON. TERRI A. SEWELL

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 1, 2019

Ms. SEWELL of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the extraordinary life and service of the late Rep. John Conyers, the longest serving African American in Congress, a founding member of the Congressional Black Caucus and the former Dean of the House.

During his more than 50 years in the House of Representatives, Rep. Conyers built a reputation as a champion for civil, human and voting rights. He was relentless: Just four days after the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was killed, Rep. Conyers introduced the first bill to create a federal holiday honoring him. Fifteen years later, he finally got it over the finish line when President Reagan signed it into law in 1983.

Rep. Conyers spent his life advocating for those who often did not have a seat at the table. He helped spearhead landmark reforms including the original passage and several extensions of the Voting Rights Act, as well as passage of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 and the Hate Crimes Act of 2009. In 2002, Rep. Conyers successfully pushed for the Help America Vote Act, legislation that made sweeping improvements to voting systems and voter access.

On a personal note, Rep. Conyers also had ties to my hometown of Selma, Alabama, where he led a voter registration drive in February 1965, just one month before the Bloody Sunday Selma to Montgomery march. Rep. Conyers was in his first year in Congress, but Dr. King said his "very presence there has had an electric effect upon the voteless and beleaguered Negro citizens of this city, county, state and nation."

Rep. Conyers never wavered in his steadfast support of his beloved Detroit and those he served. May he rest in peace.

DIRECTING CERTAIN COMMITTEES TO CONTINUE ONGOING INVESTIGATIONS INTO WHETHER SUFFICIENT GROUNDS EXIST FOR THE IMPEACHMENT OF DONALD JOHN TRUMP, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

SPEECH OF

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 31, 2019

Ms. NORTON. Madam Speaker, to its credit, the House is demonstrating the seriousness of steps that could lead to the impeachment of a president. In my judgment, shameful breaches of conduct (and Trump has committed many), such as President Clinton's affair with Monica Lewinsky, were not impeachable because official duties were not implicated. For impeachment, the Constitution requires "high Crimes and Misdemeanors." An affair with an intern is disgraceful, not criminal.

The people are ahead of the Congress on impeaching this President, or at least on the inquiry we formalize, if consistent indications from polls can be counted as evidence. The House is taking the right step in ratifying the inquiry process that will lead to the necessary open hearings.

As a member of the Oversight and Reform Committee, I have been sitting in on closed hearings from witnesses whose testimony is part of the prescribed process. The prosecutor, the House, is conducting an inquiry, which is like a grand jury proceeding or a U.S. Attorney investigation to determine if there has been a violation of law. These procedures are always closed to protect the innocent parties in case the decision is made that there is not enough evidence to move forward. So far, witnesses have come forward to corroborate evidence indicating that Trump used his office as president to seek "a favor," an investigation of his most prominent opponent in the forthcoming election, by a foreign power who had life or death dependence on the appropriated U.S. funds.

Was there an attempt made to hold security funding hostage to the president's concern about a political rival? If this question is deemed not to be worthy of the inquiry—investigation—we authorize today, it would be difficult to ever again define any conduct that deserves an impeachment inquiry.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. A. DONALD McEACHIN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, November 1, 2019

Mr. McEACHIN. Madam Speaker, I was unavoidably detained on October 29, 2019 during roll call no. 587, On Ordering the Previous Question, H. Res. 655, Providing for consideration of H. Res. 296, affirming the United States record on the Armenian Genocide. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea." I was also unavoidably detained during roll call no. 588, On Agreeing to the Resolution, H. Res. 655, Providing for consideration of H. Res. 296, affirming the United States record on the Armenian Genocide. Had I been
